

Jan S. Rynkiewicz, CEO
Stream Communications
Network and Media Inc.
+48-22-842-7666

Warsaw, April 25th 2011.

Change in shareholders' Structure in Stream Communications Sp. z o.o. (Stream Communications Kraków)

On April 11th 2011 the majority shareholder of Stream Communications sp. z o.o. ("Stream Communications Krakow"), Hyperion S.A sold all 105,657 (one hundred and five thousand six hundred fifty seven) shares it held in Stream Communications Krakow to MNI Telecom S.A

On the same day MNI Telecom S. A sold to Almerio Consultancy Limited, Cyprus company with headquarters in Nicosia, 9.941 (nine thousand nine hundred forty one) shares in Stream Communications Krakow.

Following these sales, the current shareholders' structure of Stream Communications Kraków is the following:

1. MINI Telecom S. A	70,00% Shares
2. Stream Communications Network & Media	22,27% Shares
3. Almerio Consultancy Limited	7,23% Shares

MNI Telecom S.A is a telecommunication company which is a subsidiary of MNI S.A., a company listed on the Warsaw Stock Exchange which also holds a 32,98 % stake in Hyperion S.A.

Almerio Consultancy Limited is a financial investment firm trading on capital and debt markets.

Stream Communications Kraków is the seventh largest cable TV operator in Poland with a 2.3% market share. The company offers TV services in analogue and digital technology, access to the Internet and stationary telephone services in 16 cities, e.g. Kraków, Bielsko-Biała, Rzeszów, Jasło, Sanok, Częstochowa, Katowice, Gdańsk, Suwałki. Stream Communications Sp. Krakow has over 80 000 subscribers a majority of whom use paid services and packets. Growing number of clients of Stream select digital TV services and other services (access to the Internet, voice services).